Hon. Carl E. Nesbitt,
Adjutant General,
Austin, Texas.

Dear General Nesbitt;- Replying to your letter of 22nd ult., requesting the return of my Commission as Special Ranger, beg to advise that I turned that Special Rangers Commission to our Sheriff E.D. Cartwright of Bastrop County, about June 16th, 1934, requesteing that he return it to the proper authority at Austin. I gave up my commission as a Special Ranger, for the reason that I was supporting James V. Allred for Governor, and felt that I could not consistently hold the commission under the then Governor.

Yours very truly,

Sam Dunbar.
